For the State - Mr K.K. Mishra, Advocate

ORDER

07/12/2016

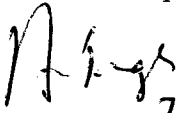

PDS dealer Upendra Chaudhary and Mr Mukesh Kumar, BDO, Jandaha are present.

We have heard the PDS dealer and the BDO, Jandaha. The dealer was left with 157.37 quintals of rice when the SGRY scheme was closed. The value thereof would be Rs 2,15,596/- @ 1370/-per quintal. The dealer has already deposited 50% of the total demand i.e. Rs 1,17,800/-. The question is realization of the balance amount of Rs 97,796/-. The dealer says that there was no fault on his part if the grains deteriorated.

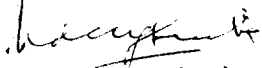

It is a moot question whether the grains deteriorated or it found new ^{alleges} ways. That is the matter we have to decide and for that purpose it is necessary to hear Shashi Kumar Singh, the then Mukhiya, Rajendra Prasad Singh, the then Panchayat Secretary, Ashok Kumar, the then BDO and the present Panchayat Secretary.

Let summons be issued to all of them directing all of them to appear before this Commission with all relevant documents including stock register and other related registers.

For the State - Mr K.K. Mishra, Advocate

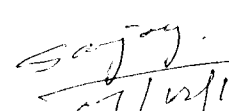

ORDER

07/12/2016

PDS dealer Shankar Paswan is present. Mr Mukesh Kumar, BDO, Jandaha is also present.

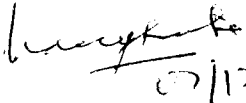

BDO has filed a report vide letter no.1660 dated 06/12/16. The report says that the dealer owes 322.84 quintals of rice the price of which is Rs 4.42 lakh. Previously the report of the BDO did not amalgamate the dues with regard to Laxmipur Barbatta Panchayat the volume of which was Rs 155.30 quintals. Hence, the dealer was asked to deposit just Rs 1,02,428/-. BDO's report says that actually the dealer has deposited Rs 1,77,430/- upto now. He must deposit Rs 43,750/- which would come to 50% of the total demand against the dealer.

The dealer prays for time to deposit the said differential amount of Rs 43,750/-. Time is granted. He must produce receipt of having deposited Rs 25,000/- on 09/01/17 and later on by next month he must be depositing Rs 18,750/-.

Put up on 12/01/2017.
