ORDER

19/12/2016

PDS dealer Shiv Shankar Sharma is dead. BDO, Incharge Lalganj is present.

BDO states that Nityanand Singh has deposited Rs 7,178/- being the whole demand. There is plenty to recover from Sunil Kumar Rai and Arun Paswan. There is nothing before us to show that they are keen to deposit the sums demanded from them. The proceeding against them before this Commission is therefore dropped.

Let the BDO, Lalganj take expeditious steps before the Certificate Officer for recovery of the dues against the PDS dealers ^{up to}.

Let copy of the report of BDO kept on record.

PDS dealer Anil Kumar son of late Rajendra Bhagat is present. BDO, Vaishali is also present.

The dealer has already deposited Rs 1,14,216/- which is 50% of the total demand against him. Anil Kumar states that he is not in a position to deposit anything although he is holding PDS license in place of his father.

Let summons be issued to them directing them to appear before this Commission on 20/01/17. All of them must appear with all relevant documents in regard to the lifting of grains by Rajendra Bhagat and the reason for non-distribution of grains.
